NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Jacob H. Schiff gave the following statement today of his views on Frank Vanderlip's proposed substitute for the Owen-Glass banking and currency bill:

"The Vanderlip proposition has come as a complete surprise to the financial community, and is far from meeting general approval in banking circles. The strangest part of it is that only last Monday Mr. Vanderlip, at a

Must be Made Sooner or Later for Economic Reasons, Declares Secretary of Navy---Hysteria of Naval Preparation Great Burden.

ATLANTA, GA., Oct. 26 .- (Aboard president's special train en route to Mobile,)-Secretary of the Navy Daniels this afternoon declared himself in first class nations to close ships for a stipulated period. The secretary's suggestion followed his endorsement of a similar proposition made to Germany by Great Britain's lord of the admiralty. Winston

"I believe such an agreement must made sooner or later for economic reasons," declared the secretary. "The hysteria of naval preparations is proving too great a burden for the people We ourselves are spending about $140,but a bagatelle compared to what the great powers of Europe and Japan are facing the anomaly of making its navy less adequate by increasing it, for when new vessels are built with their more powerful armament they render useless the smaller warships."

Save for coast defense, the secre-tary declared that such an agreement, joined in by Germany, England, France, Russia, Japan and the United States, would result in the greatest benefit to humanity in general from an economic agreement is soon

While Mr. Daniels favors three, or at the least two, new war vessels, he will probably not ask for an appro-priation for colliers or auxiliaries, one of the big items of former naval ap propriations. In his estimate it is un-derstood he will recommend that no colliers or auxiliaries be built, because the navy will have at its disposal the sixty new colliers being built by the canal commission for use on the Panama canal, and these are 3.000 to 10,000 tons each, and would be all available

Advices in Washington Confirm Predictions of Apathy Throughout Country on the Day of Balloting.

PRESIDENT MAY TAKE ONE OF MANY STEPS

May Accept Election of Deputies as Legal, Giving Him New Congress in Sympathy With Him. May Accept the Result.

ARREST OF DIAZ REPORTED. VERA CRUZ, Oct. 26 .- It is reported that General Felix Diaz has been ordered under arrest for remaining at his hotel in de-fiance of the orders from the minister of war. The general was in consultation this morning with a number of his advisers, and thereafter it was made known that the health of his wife would forbid him to leave his apart-ments. The rumor that he is actually under arrest cannot be confirmed.

Secret service men are guarding the hotel, giving particular attention to the roof, over which one may pass to the American consulate in the adjoining building. Word comes that General Diaz has asked the protection of the American consul.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 .- Advices received in Washington tonight from Mexico seemed to confirm the previous prediction of general apathy towards the elections for the presidency held in that country today. Only a very light vote was cast, the reports stated, and the people, as a whole, showed little interest in the elections.

While nothing but guesses could be made here as to the outcome of the elections, the meagre reports were interpreted as indicating that the fore-casts of "no election" would be verified by the result. Should the elections be declared null and void, it has been pointed out, it would leave the way for Huerta to do one of several things, all of which might be made to inure to his own advantage.

What He Can Do Doubtful if Fnough Ballots Cast to Make Election Legal-void and continue on for an indefinite period as provisional president and dic-tator of Mexico. This would be the simplest course for him to pursue, but, would lay him open to charges of absolute breach of faith in every particular and would undoubtedly strengthen

New deputies will, of course, be Huerta men, and the congress, as a whole, will undoubtedly be prepared to co-operate with Huerta instead of obstructing him, as did the Maderista congress he dis-

Huerta might then tender to congress his resignataion as provisional presi-Congress might refuse to accept it and instruct him to continue as provisional president, though, of course, not as dictator, until another election for the presidency could be held. Despite the importance of the elec-tion, the citizens displayed indiffer-nitely.

There are some in Washington who insist that Huerta will prefer to insist
